2. Outreach Report—Unit Director, Ben Watson

Director Watson stated the Disability Pride Picnic went well. We had a table and were able to walk around and talk to others who also had tables and make connections.

Director Watson went to Midland University for housing outreach. In addition to staff, he was able to answer questions students had regarding housing.

Director Watson said he will be doing a second session with with Heartland Workforce Solutions presenting to their staff. Brandie Hinkle will be doing a separate presentation September 12, 2024, with their clients.

3. Director's Report – Executive Director, Paula Gardner

Director Gardner stated that Lincoln's Office Specialist resigned, and we have hired a Sara Urbach as the new Office Specialist. Sara comes to us with significant customer service and banking experience.

Director Gardner explained that we're close to having our website finished and will soon be trained on how to use it with it going live after that.

Director Gardner shared we have posted our budget narratives and will be working on the remaining budget items, which are due September 15, 2024. This will be for our budget request for 25-27 that the Governor and Legislature will be considering starting January 2025.

Director Gardner noted that we'll be having a virtual all staff quarterly meeting next week. We are looking to have our in-person staff meeting sometime the end of October 2024.

XV. ADJOURNMENT
